LOCAL LEADERS BACK TOM LARSON FOR STATE ASSEMBLY

[Chippewa Falls, WI] - Small business owner and first-time candidate for public office, Tom Larson was endorsed by several local officials this past week. Larson's campaign has gained tremendous momentum since his primary win in September, winning the Republican nomination to be the Chippewa Valley's next state representative.

Chippewa Falls Alderman Brian Flynn, a lifelong resident of the Chippewa Valley and civil servant to the people of Chippewa and Eau Claire counties, believes in Tom's vision as a citizen legislator and his proven ability to provide jobs for the people of the Chippewa Valley.

" I am proudly endorsing Tom Larson for the 67th Assembly seat. Tom has the proven business experience as someone who has created jobs and maintained jobs even in tough economic times. Let Tom take his private sector experience and community leadership to Madison to make a positive difference for all of us."

Our rights as sportsmen are threatened daily by liberal extremists in Madison. Attorney Steve Gibbs, an avid hunter and sportsman, knows how Tom will stand with issues pertaining to sportsmen's rights and public safety.

"Tom has been a lifelong supporter of the Second Amendment, of hunter's and sportsmen's rights as well as a staunch supporter of law enforcement. We need Tom protecting our rights in Madison."

- Steve Gibbs

Tom Larson's message of reducing spending, cutting taxes and providing jobs for people in the Chippewa Valley has been resonating with voters all over the 67th Assembly District. Former mayor of Chippewa Falls, Dan Hedrington, knows that Tom's vision and plan to bring jobs back to the Chippewa Valley is exactly what we need.

"I'm proud to endorse Tom Larson for state Assembly. Tom is a man of character and integrity and I know that he will be the best choice to represent the people of the Chippewa Valley in Madison."
